Our Teachers

I'm Georgia (Gogo for friends)

I'm Natsuyo.

I'm Mai.

Where do you live?

Where do we live?

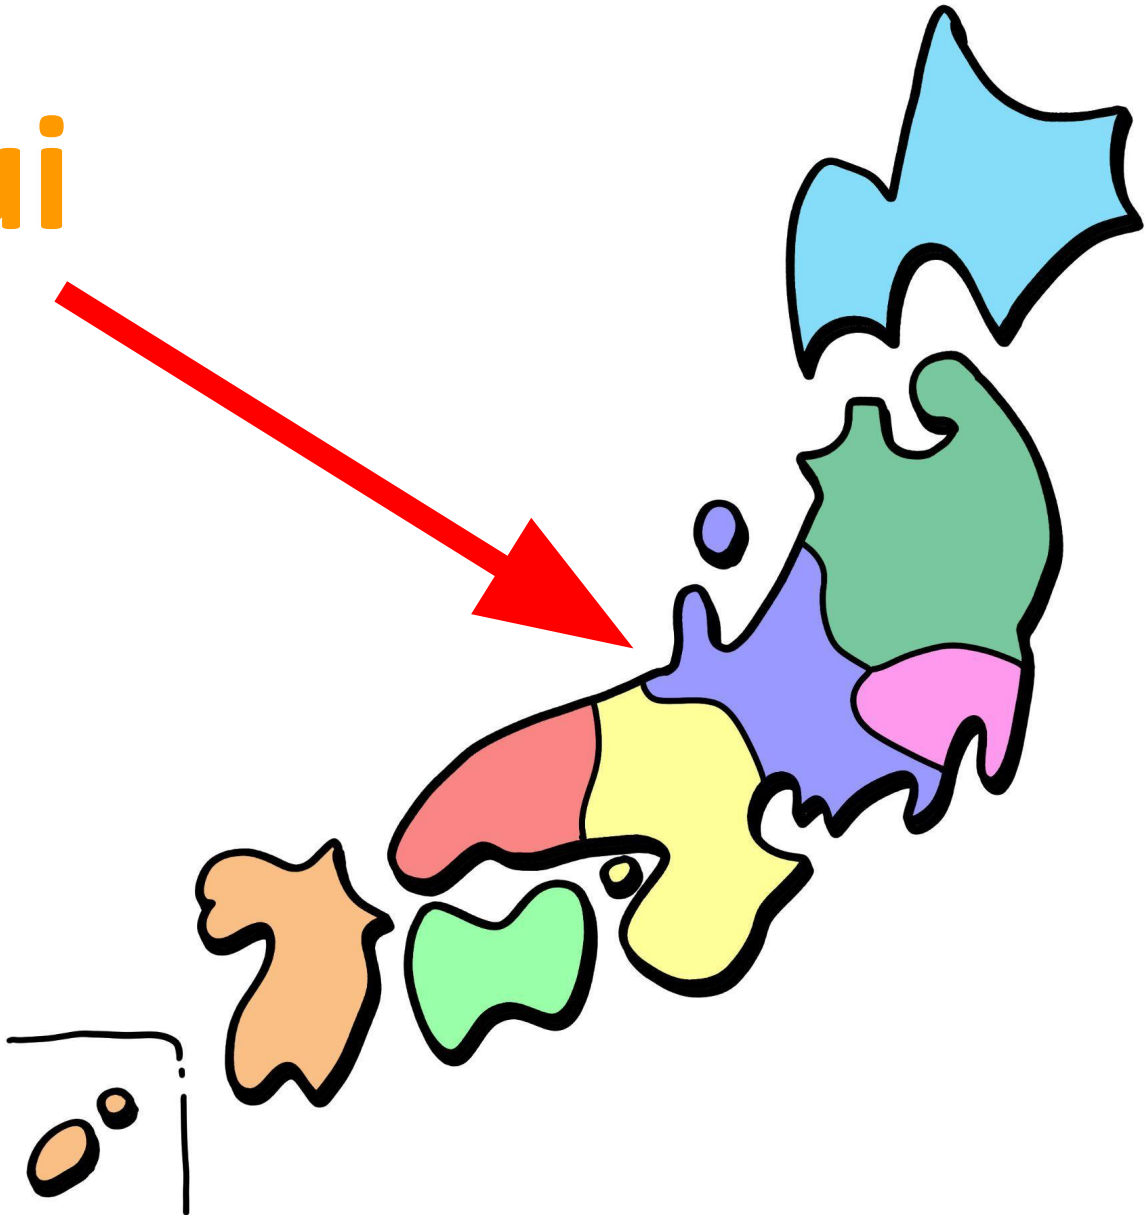

We live in Kala Nera!

We live in FUKUI

Fukui

About our cultures

Osechi

Japanese New Year Food

- including Japanese traditional foods
- packed in a special box like bento box

Osechi

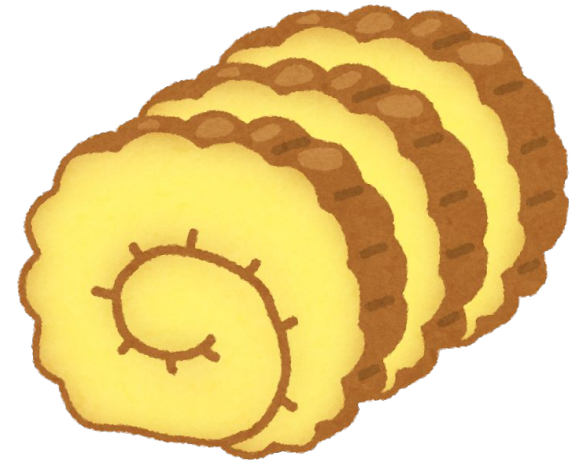

- we eat them during new year's holidays with our family
- each food has special meaning/wishes such as happiness or living longer

- Kobumaki (昆布巻)

... to live healthy and longer

- Datemaki (伊達巻)

... to get a lot of knowledge ... etc ...

Turkey

We eat it on Christmas
with rice, pine seed, minced meat (it depends on the person who cooks it)

Pork meat

During Christmas holidays, Greeks eat a lot of pork meat, with vegetables or with potatoes or fried

Vasilopita

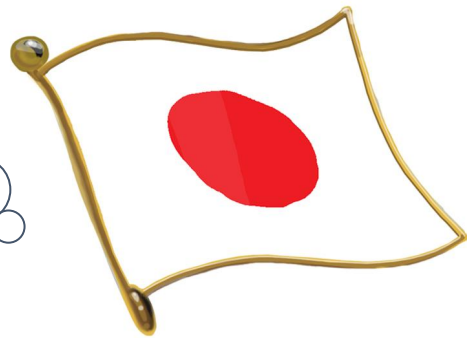

On New Year's Day, Greeks cut a special cake where they have hidden a coin.. The person who finds the coin is considered the lucky person of the year.

Game Time!

Goodbye! See you!
